GHS Class of 1944 Holds 70 Year Reunion

Â

Â The members of GHS Class of 1944 met for their 70th class reunion luncheon on the sunÂ-porch of Galion Country Club Saturday, Sept. 20. Fifteen class members and six guests enjoyed reminiscing and viewÂ-ing albums of previous reunions.

Â Blessing was offered by Jeffery Miller. Lunch was served with a choice of chicken or pork entrees and a decorated cake with a large icing photo of the old high school served as dessert.Â

Â President Earl Miller was master of ceremoÂ-nies and Fred Barr entertained with his "Auctioneer's Song".

Â Each class member gave a brief history of their lives, occupation and families. Naomi Girton Keyes, who was unable to attend, gave one-liner jokes to each class member to read for their enjoyment.Â

Â The former officers were dissolved and a chairman was elected for next year's class luncheon to be held at the Pizza Hut. Fred Barr volunteered for the posiÂ-tion.Â

Â Then a group photo was taken by Jeffery Miller to add to the group's lengthy scrapÂ-book
